To calm and center ourselves:

a moment of silence...

...and 4 deep breaths.

Note:

To make learning and integration easier...

I'll make ALL PowerPoint slides
from this class available as PDFs.

PDFs of the slides for classes #1 – 3 are already posted on my web site, www.dankeusal.com, on the page for this class (go to “Workshops”), scroll down to the bottom, and click on “1,” “2,” or “3”). I'll post the slides for today's class in the next few days.

Also...I invite you to sign up to receive my quarterly
email newsletter.

Use the form on any page of my web site,

(Autumn 2023)

Outline for this 4-week class:

- 1) ✓ Week 1: The wonder of the night sky (and: the astronomy of astrology)
- 2) ✓ Week 2: Astrology 101
- 3) ✓ Week 3: Astrology and JUNG
- 4) TODAY: In practice: reading of an actual chart.

Why does a person have this chart?

Why does a person have this chart?

A baby is born. When they are only 30 seconds old, you look into their eyes and it's clear: there's somebody "home" already.

Where did that "somebody" come from?...

Why does a person have this chart?

Evolutionary astrology addresses this question through an analysis of something called the South Node of the Moon, which symbolizes what a person came into this life to heal from (“what was in your eyes when you were 30 seconds old?”). The North Node of the Moon is the “antidote” to the wounds of the South Node; the North Node symbolizes what we are meant to grow toward.

The “momentum” of past life dynamics:

As I construct a South Node story for clients, they often comment: “Is this my past life? Because it sounds a lot like the early years of this life!”

- “The captain calls for the ‘All Stop’...” (recent collision of ship with bridge in Baltimore, or the “Ever Given” stuck in the Suez canal 3/23/21...)
- “At your 50th birthday party: “The last damn cigarette I’ll ever smoke!””

One of the best ways to “learn” or “understand” astrology is to experience it: get a birth chart reading!

To schedule a reading, Send an email to:
dankeusal@dankeusal.com with your:

- First and last name
- DATE of birth (day/month/year)
- PLACE of birth (city, county, state, country)
- TIME of birth (down to the minute!)
 - Birth time MUST be exact!
 - Best source for this: a birth certificate. “My mother remembers it as...” is NOT reliable ☺

Closing...

“Our psyche is set up in accord with the structure of the universe, and what happens in the macrocosm likewise happens in the infinitesimal and most subjective reaches of the psyche.”

(C.G. Jung, Memories, Dreams, Reflections, p. 335.)

“All are syllables of the great word
that is very slowly spoken
by the shining of the stars.”

Dan Keusal
All Along

On a journey beneath the guide
Of an ever-changing sky
I have paused to wonder Inside? Outside?

For the grist grinds the millstone as well

The changer and the changed

And the writer is born from the word

Singer when the song is heard

I hear

My song

So near

Can there be a healing heart
In this heart of mine?
Brought together here with you
Gathering all the wounded parts
Giving each their time
Treasures here I never knew

You are more than a mirror to me
In the alchemy of soul
Past the boundaries of either/or
I can open spirit's door
And find there
Right now
Right here

Can there be a healing heart
In this heart of mine?
Brought together here with you
Gathering all the wounded parts
Giving each their time
Treasures here I never knew

For all that is gold does not glitter
Not all who wander are lost
The old that is strong does not wither
Deep roots are not reached by the frost*

*lyrics on this slide (the “bridge” of the song)
are from J.R.R. Tolkien’s The Lord of the Rings

Can there be a healing heart
In this heart of mine?
Brought together here with you
Gathering all the healing parts
Giving each their time
Treasures here I never knew
